YESTERDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES.

News from the Army of the Potomac.

General Grant Makes a Reconnoissance.

He Finds a Powerful Position in our Front.

Grant's Preparations in Case of a Retreat.

Rebel Losses in the Late Battles 30,000.

Repulse and Heavy Loss of Ledlie's Brigade.

Foreign News by the City of Baltimore.

Grant's Movements Progressing Well and Rapidly.

New York, May 30. The steamer City of Baltimore, from Liverpool and Queenstown 19th, arrived this morning.

There is brilliant forcing weather for crops. The Conference held a three-hour session on the 17th, when all the members were present.

The Daily News says they can hardly be said to have advanced a step, and the prospect of an agreement is as distant as ever. No committee of conference is yet agreed upon. The Germans repudiate altogether the treaty engagements.

The Conference adjourned till the 28th of May, when more time will be given for the fixed for the truce to have expired.

The Daily Telegraph says France advocates a prolonged suspension of hostilities, if necessary.

France advises continue to charge the Germans with plundering and confiscation after the armistice was declared.

France contains rumors of probable ministerial changes in France.

The practice of La Pommereis for poison was revealed in a verdict of guilty, and he was sentenced to death.

Bourse steady at 665.

Favor for the final termination of the Pope's papal election.

Liverpool, May 18th, 2 P. M.—Cotton market quiet, but without any quotable change. Breadstuffs generally very dull, owing to the very brilliant weather.

Our daily Provisions, and pork neglected. Bacon slow and rather cheaper.

London Markets—Wheat dull and barley cheaper.

London Money Market.—The discount demand at the Bank of England is unimportant, and the belief in an early reduction has gained ground. The Bank of England reduced its rates of discount to 8 per cent.

New York, May 30.

The Times' special says that Ledlie's brigade, the Tenth regulars, Thirteenth, Fifty-sixth, Fifty-seventh, and Fifty-ninth Massachusetts and Fourth regulars, met with a strong force of rebels at the bridge which had crossed the river, and were driving the rebel skirmishers, when a charge was made.

Instantly from a concealed battery of four to six guns, the rebels opened a terrible fire, and the Tenth, and the bridge fell back to a cover in a piece of wood, when in the height of a thunder storm the rebels charged and drove our men towards the river, just as another brigade came up and checked the rebels, which proved successful; for what it was accomplished the rebels were completely taken by surprise.

The Times' special correspondence says that wounded rebel officers say their loss in the late battles will reach 30,000.

New York, May 30.

The Times' special says that there was considerable skirmishing, but no heavy fighting near Hanoi. Contingent on the rebels' movements are progressing well and rapidly. Most of the casualties are among the New England troops.

Washington, May 30. A. M.

Major General Dix:

No official dispatch from the Army of the Potomac has been received since my telegram of Saturday evening.

A telegram from Sherman, dated near Dallas, May 29th, reports that on Saturday an engagement occurred between the rebels and McClellan's corps, and that the rebels were back with a loss of 2,500 killed and wounded, and about 300 prisoners. Our loss was not over 300.

E. M. STANTON,

Secretary of War.

Philadelphia, May 30.

The Inquirer has a dispatch dated at headquarters army of the Potomac, on route for Boston, with the following:

General Grant has received a telegram stating that the whole army is again in motion, Hancock's corps in advance, followed by Wright's.

Gen. Warren is joining us, having brought his corps on our former right wing over the North Anna. Burnside will cross at County Ridge and will bring up our rear. The army moves with a celerity never known before. We will make twenty miles before night.

Gen. Lee evidently thought we were going to the south, but he is outgeneraled, and by 1 P. M. will be within four hours' march of Richmond.

Once getting Lee in his works we go around his left and give battle on the north side of the South Anna, but he is outgeneraled, and by 1 P. M. will be within four hours' march of Richmond.

The whole country here is planted with corn, pasture being fine. We sweep all before us; horses, cattle, mules, contrabands, all fall into our train.

New York, May 30.

The steamers Cassandra, from New Orleans on the 21st, and the Mermaid, on the 23d, have not yet arrived. The New Orleans papers contain no news. Hayes' account mention the capture of the Mexican Christo by the Spanish in St. Domingo.

New York, May 30.

A dispatch from Wheeling states that Gen. Hunter has reduced his army to light marching order, and is now on the Kanawha River. He issued an order that the army is to live on the country through which it passes.

CINCINNATI, May 30.

River fallen 1 foot 10 inches, with 16 feet 2 inches in the channel. Weather clear. Thermometer 80; barometer 29.48.
